MAGGIE DAVIS' STAKE.

The excellent card offered by the Harlem management yesterday was the means of drawing out the largest crowd of the week, barring Labor Day. The afternoon was windy and cool, but despite these conditions the time made in each of the races was fast. The result in the Garden City Stakes was quite a shock to the talent, an outsider, Maggie Davis, showing the way for the entire distance to the best lot of sprinters in the west. The adjustment of weights in this affair was a clever piece of work, hardly four lengths separating the first ten horses. From a betting point of view the race was a very open affair, as high as 6 to 1 being posted against the first choice. To a good start Maggie Davis darted into the van, leading by two lengths at the quarter from Master Mariner, he a half in front of Headwater. Here Money Mues moved up fast displacing Master Mariner in second place but his tenure of it was short as the former regained it just before turning for home and got within a neck of the leader. Straightening for the wire Maggie Davis increased her advantage to a length and held it by that margin to the end winning handily under a mild urging. Headwater and Master Mariner had a spirited fight for second place in the last sixteenth, the former gaining the verdict on the post by a head. Both were very tired in the closing strides and had it been a little farther would not have finished inside the money as George Arnold and Jimmes finished strongly and were moving fast at the end. Both made up ground in the final quarter. Money Mues had enough when a furlong out and Miss Bennett was always outrun.

The handicap, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward went to Argregor. Leo Newell led at the quarter and then Searcher assumed command, holding the lead by a fair margin up to the last quarter, where the quartet swung into the stretch on almost even terms. About the last eighth post Knight called on Argregor and he came away winner easily by a length and a half from Strongest, he beating Leo Newell by a neck for second place.

The sixth race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds as was expected proved an easy thing for St. Marcos, he winning by two and a half lengths from Six Shooter, he being four in front of Denman Thompson.

Mondoro had the honor of running his six furlongs in faster time than Maggie Davis ran hers, negotiating the distance in 1:12½, while Maggie Davis' was only 1:13½. Mondoro came strong and true in the stretch and had little trouble passing School for Scandal, winning easily by two lengths, while she beat Andes four and a half for the second place.

The talent hit upon Julia Junkin to win the second race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds, but the best she could do was to run third, the winner turning up in Henry Zitt, who led from flag dip to wire, winning easily by two and a half lengths. Rag Tag finished second a length before Julia Junkin. Rag Tag ran close up with Henry Zitt to the last eighth, where he faltered, but had enough left to beat Julia Junkin for second place. Landseer was never a contender.

Espionage had no excuse for losing the third race—a dash of one mile—as she got off second in her stride. She led by a half length until well down the backstretch, where Synia easily passed her and remained in front without much trouble the rest of the journey. She won by two lengths easily from Espionage, she beating Laureate three for second place.

A poor lot of platers lined up to the barrier in the last race, and as fourteen started Dwyer had his troubles getting them away to any kind of a fair send-off. Alce darted to the front with ease, and quickly opening a gap of five lengths easily maintained his advantage thereafter, finally winning in a canter by four lengths from Vernetta, which beat Ida V. on the post by a head for second place.

JUNIOR STAKES WEIGHTS.

To the youngsters engaged in the Junior Stakes, which will be run at Harlem Tuesday, Secretary Nathanson has allotted the weights which appear below. The race is a six furlongs dash, with $1,500 added, and will no doubt be a hotly contested affair.

HARLEM THIS WEEK.

The excellent program prepared by Secretary Nathanson for the week of racing at Harlem that terminates next Saturday, calls for the decision of three stakes, the first of which the Junior Stakes, a handicap at six furlongs for two-year-olds, will be decided Tuesday. The weights appear elsewhere in this issue. The Cicero Stakes, a selling affair at a mile with $1,000 added will be run off Thursday, while on Saturday the Maywood Handicap at a mile and one hundred yards with $1,000 added, will be the leading feature. All of these events have excellent entry lists and should be contested by big fields of the best horses now in the west. The purses are on the usual liberal scale with steepchases provided for Monday and Friday and a hurdle race for Wednesday.

Winner—Ch. f. by Kingston—Seerss.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Prophetic, much the best at the weights, ran on the outside throughout, covered the most ground and yet ran away from the others in the stretch with an incompetent jockey up. Honolulu saved ground on the rail and was lucky to beat The Referee for second place. The latter showed a superior order of speed and ran a fine race. Eddie Busch was unable to concede the weight. O'Hagen will beat this kind on a muddy track. The form is not reliable as to the rear ones on account of the big field and much interference.

Scratched—28129 Glen Water, 112; 28071 Rookey, 102; 27934 Zirl, 99; 28009 Playlike, 97; 27904 Francesco, 112.

Winner—B. or br. f. by Ben Strome—Prudence.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won ridden out; second driving. Lady Uncas got a lucky break, took the short way around, finished fast and is in good form. Unmasked, got poorly, closed a big gap and finished strongly. He is improving into his best form evidently. Cervera saved ground on the turn and then made up much ground and ran away above his mark. Isia put up a first-class race at the weight. Kid's race was far above anything shown hitherto. King Pepper broke slowly and raced prominently on the extreme outside of a half dozen horses and received a very bad ride. His first half must have been done in close to 48 seconds. Janice was hemmed in but helped to set the pace and displayed brilliant speed and must be in very good form. Otis has sore heels but had small chance with the start. Malster was out of place. Watch Musette.

Scratched—28101 Chuctanunda, 120; (28101) Duellist, 108; 27937 Ben Mac Dhui, 110; (28041) Kilogram, 108.

Winner—B. f. by Dr. MacBride—Woyden.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. There was a tremendous lot of interference and crowding in the race. Leonora Loring was lucky to escape mishaps that befell Blue Girl and Flora Pomona, both of which were hopelessly pocketed and hemmed in until too late to get up. Blue Girl must have been much the best. She came with a tremendous burst of speed at the end. Sun Shower, Flora Pomona, Gunfire and Josepha finished very strongly. Par Excellence ran a remarkable race and showed a glaring form reversal. Rose of May, Ataseo and Lux Casta ran each other into exhaustion. From a time standpoint the race was very bad and undoubtedly not a true run one. Mr. Whitney was much put out over the defeat of Blue Girl, which he owns outright since yesterday, and the layers' sheets were taken up for inspection by order of the stewards.

Leonora Loring, show, 7 to 5. Blue Girl, show, 1 to 4. Sun Shower, show, 10 to 1. Gunfire, show, 4 to 5. Rose of May, show, 6 to 1.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Mondoro came fast and strongly in the last eighth and was easily the best. School for Scandal showed a great turn of speed but tired in the last eighth. Andes ran far below the form shown in his last race. He had no mishaps and is simply inconsistent. Henry of Trastamara's was a poor performance in the light of his last good showing. He could not get up at any part of the race. If You Dare ran well for five furlongs and then fell away beaten.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Synia ran a good race and came away without much trouble in the last quarter, winning easily. Espionage ran below expectations but was much the best of the others. She had enough after running a short six furlongs. Laureate came strongly in the last sixteenth after making up ground from the half mile post. Miss Soak and Banish ran well for six furlongs. Evelyn Byrd ran well for only a short half mile and was hopelessly beaten off at the finish.

Winner—B. m. by Sayre—Lizzie C.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next four driving. Maggie Davis, off in front, simply smothered her field with speed and was never headed. Headwater hung slightly in the closing strides, as did also Master Mariner. The latter skinned the inside rail down the stretch and had no mishaps. George Arnold came fast in the last sixteenth and would have been second in a few more strides. Jiminez finished fast after being out in the early stages of the race. Miss Bennett was never prominent, but closed up some ground in the last quarter. Money Muss fell away beaten when a furlong out.

Scratched—28068 Tayon, 112; 27796 Lennep, 100.

Overweights—Evo, 3 pounds.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Argregor laid along within call to the last quarter where Knight called upon him and he responded with a rush and won going away. Strangest finished stonily and beat out Leo Newell in the closing strides. The latter had enough a sixteenth out. Searcher showed the most early speed but quit in the last quarter.

Went to post at 4:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Coburn called on St. Marcos just after turning for home and he came away without much trouble, winning easily. Six Shooter finished strongly, but had no chance to beat the winner. Denman Thompson had enough after running a little over six furlongs.

28151 SEVENTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Florian—Zitella.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. Alee simply ran away from his field and the result was never in doubt. Vernetta closed with a rush, but got second place simply because the saddle slipped on Ida V. and her rider could not control her in the closing strides. Despite this Ida V. closed much ground in the last quarter. About, as usual, quit when the pinch came. Frank Ireland, Zacatoso and Patroon all quit in the last eighth. It was about as bad a field as could be gotten together.

Scratched—28066 King Dellis, 112; 28121 Penell Me, 93.

Overweights—Alee, 14 pounds; Frank Ireland, 3; George Arab, 1.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

Winner—B. g. by Darebin—Sibyl.
Went to post at 2:31. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Syncopated Sandy has been improving steadily and ran an excellent race for him. Dominis made up a lot of ground and finished with determination. Nellie Helmuth showed speed, but found the weight too much and tired. Empyreal was out off twice and h-r chance was much affected by the interference. Dick Hobson ran a poor race. Darrell showed early speed, but did not carry it beyond five furlongs.
Overweights—Synco-pated Sandy, 2 pounds; Empyreal, 3; Darrell, 2.
Synco-pated Sandy, show, 7 to 10. Dominis, show, 4 to 5. Nellie Helmuth, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Rainbow—Mendacity.
Went to post at 3:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Menace ran a good race and was best handled and probably the result was a true one. O'Neill mishandled South Breeze. Off in front, he allowed her to be outpaced and used poor judgment in the early part of the race. Even then the filly might have won had he not twice switched from the reins to the whip without then using the whip. Wine Press ran in much improved form and will do presently.
Overweights—Menace, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Goldfinch—Yum Yum.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Dean Swift, a fine looking colt, was well away and never in trouble thereafter. He can probably do better. Bart Howe ran an excellent race and was poorly ridden. Leviathan, away in a tangle, showed a smart turn of speed in a big field and finished resolutely. Goody Good, worried by the large field, ran the best race of the lot. She is a good filly and will do presently. Marie Tyron has a very sore mouth.
Overweights—Mollie Brooks, 3 pounds.
Dean Swift, show, out. Bart Howe, even. Leviathan, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by St. Florian—Serene.
Went to post at 4:13. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. The race was made and run to suit Peaceful. He finished fast and won with speed in reserve. Van Hoorebeke ran an excellent race under a rider who impeded rather than helped him. He finished strong y. Prior did his best and was all out at the end. Alice Turner looked well and was given an easy race. Prosper La Gais was overweighted.
Overweights—Prior, 2 pounds.
Van Hoorebeke, show, 1 to 2. Prior, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by St. Saviour—Josie W.
Went to post at 4:43. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Sambo showed much early speed today in sharp contrast to his last race, came through the field in the stretch and won with something in reserve. Rose of Red was badly mismanaged by Hall. She was allowed to swerve all over the track at the end and stopped running fast while strong and willing. Huntressa does not like weight. Wakita did not show her usual brilliant early speed but she finished very stoutly after running wide at the stretch turn. With a ground saving ride she would have done better. Mada Belle was made too much use of in early pace-making. She likes to run from behind to the stretch.
Rose of Red, show, 8 to 5. Huntressa, show, out. Wakita, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fonso—Flower Dollie.
Went to post at 5:13. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Nekarnis was much the best. Off last, he was taken through the big field, hitting everything in it as he went along. He was almost thrown over the fence at the half mile, but managed to break through and win easily. Diaz ran an excellent race and would possibly have won as it was run had he been well handled. Fairy Day also suffered from incompetent handling. Race finished strongly and almost stole third place in the last stride. Two Annies ran an extra good race for her.
Overweights—Two Annies, 2 pounds.
Nekarnis, show, even. Diaz, show, 2 to 1. Fairy Day, show, 4 to 1. Clonsilla, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Macduff—Dreamland.
Went to post at 5:41. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second doing her best.
Sweet Dream is a fast filly now. She held the field safe all the way and won with a great burst of speed. Ethel Wheat, bumped a trifles at the start, ran her race and was given a rattling finish.
Revoke was poorly handled and finished very strong, though her rider was of no assistance to her. Miss Mae Day ran a brilliant race to the stretch entry where she was bumped and cut off when she appeared like a winner. Walker used bad judgment on Verify. He took him up too quickly and too far back in order to let Judge Pettus make the pace. With a better ride Verify would probably have been second. Judge Pettus ran his race and retired when he had finished his work of helping Verify.
Overweights—Sweet Dream, 3 pounds; Ethel Wheat, 4; Revoke, 4; Miss Mae Day, 3.
Sweet Dream, show, 1 to 2. Ethel Wheat, show, 3 to 5. Revoke, show, 8 to 5. Miss Mae Day, Went to post at 3:06. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. The Laurel saved ground at every turn and under strong urging lasted just long enough.

Ordeal ran well and would have won with a stronger ride. Jim Nap was in close quarters next to the inside all through the last sixteenth. Full Dress closed a big gap. So did Prince Esher, but the latter tired under the weight. Micou was coming strongly at the end.
